

How IHA PAC and Advocacy Align

The IHA PAC builds our influence and credibility.

A critical part of IHA's advocacy program

A strong, unified and trusted voice on the issues

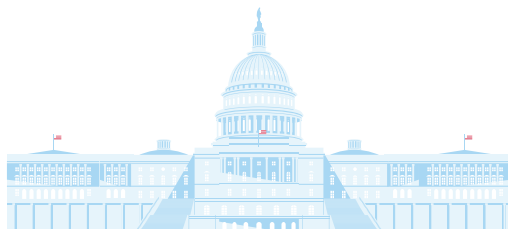

Opportunities to advocate for policies that strengthen hospitals and health systems

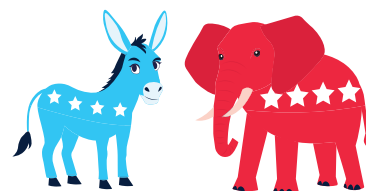

We support elected officials and candidates who value health care.

State legislative leadership, health care committee leaders and engaged legislators

Congressional delegation in Washington, D.C.

A bipartisan approach to building relationships with health care champions

Our strategy is developed with and for members.

IHA leverages member expertise to inform our strategy and implement it collaboratively.

Why it matters.

Our ability to inform decision-makers, elevate key issues and protect hospital interests means your patients and communities continue to receive quality care.

Contributions or gifts to the IHA PAC are not deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes. All contributions are voluntary and do not affect job status, performance review, compensation or employment. Any giving guideline is merely a suggestion. Any amount given or the decision not to give will not advantage or disadvantage you. Federal and state campaign finance laws require us to use our best efforts to collect and report the names, mailing addresses, occupations and employers of those whose contributions exceed $200 (federal) and $25 (state) in a calendar year (January-December).
